UNION AND AMERICAN. ATTEMPT. TO MURDER AN HEIRESS.

A Mysterious Transaction-Murderous Attack Upon a Young Lady. From the Detroit Tribune, October 28. At the present time citizens living in the immediate vicinity of the corner of greatly agitated lest a murder and possibly other terrible crimes shall be committed. While one family is the most excited over the matter, the feeling of insecurity is prevalent through the entire neighborhood. On Monday night last a bold and outrageous attempt was made to murder a young lady named Mary Sanford, residing with the family of Mr. Deering, who is the proprietor of a dry good store on the corner above named. She was met by some villian at or near the corner of Eighth and Fort streets, early in the evening, and came very near losing her life. The wretch, whoever he was, made three separate attempts to stab the young lady, and cut her hat in as many places, appearances would indicate, with a rator. Several days since an anonymous note was sent to the house of Mr. Deering for Christian society in San Francisco-Miss Sanford, in which the writer requested a private interview with her, conperning matters which the person said interested her only. The writer selected a certain locality and time for the meeting. Mr. Deering accompanied the young indy, but as nothing could be seen of the mysterious personage at the appointed place, they returned home. Another note was then sent, which stated that the SPAIN AND THE UNITED STATES writer wished to see Miss Sanford alone, and appointed Monday evening as the occasion Mr. Deering remained at home, Mr. Hale: with Miss Sanford. As they neared the ernment and the Minister of Foreign Af-time and the corner of Eighth and Fort streets as the place of meeting On this and another gentleman went as an escort locality last referred to, the gentleman walked down one side of Eighth street, the better to observe any movements that might be made, while she walked on the other side of the street. As she approached a secluded spot near Richardson's match factory, an unknown man jumped from near the fence and struck the young lady a powerful blow upon the head. She immediately cried for assistance, and the gentleman who had accompanied her, as a guard rushed to her assistance. Before he could reach her, however, the would-be murderer had made, but in vain, to capture him. Miss upon divine right has ceased to Sanford was found not to have been se-exist, to be immediately replaced by are endeavoring to ferret out the assas. ened to salute and recognize the accession sin. We regret to state, however, that of the United States and their entry into the chances for arresting the scoundrel are not good. The attack was made so suddenly that Miss Sanford had no opportunity to see the face of the party, nor color or his clothing. Since this event several letters have been beyond the power of their diplomatic sent to Mr Decring's residence, all of a sgents to arrange. I need not add that unthreatening nature, but by whom they der present circumstances every effort will were written, or for what cause, remains | be made by me to draw closer and render a mystery, which the future can only more cardial the sentiments of friendship solve. There is entertained one solution and good will which unite the two na to the attempted marder, but this may or tions. may not be correct. The statement was made to us by Mr. Deering, and we give the Provisional government, thus rep isd ford's purcous formerly lived at Lyons, Clinton county, Icwa, and were quite in the name of the Spanish people, the wealthy. A brother of her father and congeniulations which your Excellency ha his wife lived in New Orleans, Louisiana, addressed to me on the occasion of this and the family of the former-Mary being the only daughter-went to New Orleans to pay a visit to their relatives there. Miss Sandford was then quite young She is now sixteen years of age. While at New Orleans her father and mother were stricken down with yellow fever and died there. Her uncle and nunt subsequently moved North and took pos- ment now abolished, will, I assure session of the Sandford estate at Lyons, you, in future, equally deeve the Lowa. Mary always passed and was known as the daughter of the surviving Sandford, until tune; and Spain, which under present co very recently, when the facts were made known to her that she was living with her | the sympathy of all the nations who lov uncle; that her father was dead; and that the property that she supposed he- accepts with especial respect the sympath longed to her uncle was really her property. These things were made so clear to her that she could not fail to unders stand them and she began to assert her rights under the circumstances. From that time she was regarded by her relatives as a dangerous person (to them) to have about the promises. Grievances, real or supposed, it matters not, came thick and fast, and Miss Sandford, having previously formed the acquaintance of the Deering amicably arranged, and who, professing a amily—who were then engaged in the equal reverence for the same principles of dry goods and millinery business at Lyons, lowa-was afforded shelter by them. About two months since the Deerings came to Detroit (or rather returned here) and opened a place of business, the same as that managed by them in lows, on the corner of Sixth street and Michigan avenue They brought Miss Sandforl with hem, and she has since remained with he family. We have never been able to reconcile this ear piercing with the advancing ideas of Christian civilization. There has always been a suggestion in the custom of savage nose-rings and tattoong, and the

BEART. From the Lexinston (Ky.) Stat-On the evening of the 28th instant a most harrible naurder was committed by a county. The facts as we learned them are I ave on HAND, AND ARE CONSTANT about as follows: Grimes has, for some time past, been paying attention to a young lady teacher, who had charge of a is Hill. On the evening of Wednesday, and Tirobolts, Hubs, Spokes, Felices, and all the 28th instant, they were out walking kind of wagon material. We also keep the cole-beated together, and suddenly the stillness of the evening was traken by three sharp report of a pistol. The residents of the house where Miss Hill was staying rushed to the spot and found the young lady dead. The first shot fired by tirimes took cilict in her neck, killing her instantly, two other shots taking effect in different parts of her body. IDOL WORSHIP IN SAN FRANCISCO When the Chinese living in San Francisco first made public their purpose to erect a Buddhist temple in that city, there occurred a very lively discussion in the newspapers regarding what was assumed to be the danger of permitting the introduction of idol-worship as a recognized institution in a Christian community, and some of the writers strongly urged legislative interference in the mat-

Michigan avenue and Sixth street are ter. It was argued that the bare fact of the existence of an organized system of idolatry in this country would be prejudicial, at least, to the interests of civilization, and perhaps regarded by other civilized nations as evidence of cur failure to maintain the principles of religious freedom without risking the engraftment of heathenism upon our varied stock of religious theories. But public opinion did not respond to the alarm, and "John Chinaman" proceeded to build his "joss. house" and make his offerings of pork and poultry before graven images of wao and stone, and curiosity-seeking Chris-tians crowded the temple on high day and holidays to witness the novelty of > pagan worship. It does not appear that the huge wood n monster exhibited in the temple has had any demoralizing influence upor least no instance of a conversion from Christianity to paganism has been chronicled. And perhaps public sentiment i correct in refusing to accord sympathy with the fears of those persons who be lieve they see in the Chinese enterpris at San Francisco a plot to heatheniz

The President of the Provisional govairs officially received the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States, who was accompanied by Mr. Horatio J. Perry, the Secretary of the following speech.

America, and recognizing the accomplished fact by which the Spanish people, making use of its sovereign prerogative, and of its right inherent in all nations, has changed undamentally both the name and system of their government, I congratulate your excellency on the fortunate event, and dealt her two other blows, and, observing also on the quiet, efficacious, and decisive that he was in danger of being captured, manner in which so radical an alternation fled toward Lafayette avenue. He was has been effected. A government which hotly pursed, and every possible effort believed itself up to a certain point based mr. Deering's residence. people having asserted the prerogative their sovereignty. The first portion of th work being now accomplished, and the obstacles which constantly hindered the in auguaration of those institutions to which the nation aspired being now thrown down the new order of things, which by means of the exercise of that sovereignty wil shortly arise from the ruins of the governrecollections called up by your Excellency is assuredly both agreeable and oppor constances needs, and doubtless deserves therty and have themselves achieved i people of the United States, have not hesi tated at any sacrifice to preserve their fre institutions. The diplomatic relation which by virtue of the present official acwill continue between your governmen and that over which I have the honor t preside, will be henceforth as close and cordial as they should be between two na tions who have never had any difference one with the other which could not b overnment, apply them in turn, in order
